

The beginning

- First camera was set up at Ash Vale station (now 3 cameras)
- First meteor captured on 6 April 2012 at 03:08:36
- Mainly oriented to capture meteors across the Channel with french BOAM network

Clanfield joins in

- Just in time for 2012 Perseid meteor shower
- In 2012 a total of 4 cameras contributed data to the UKMON repository.
- Together, these cameras recorded 1,039 individual meteor observations
- First paired fireball with Ash Vale station on 15 December 2012 at 03:41:00 UT

